

Article from "The Mickaboo Bird Rescue Companion"
Published January, 2018

Art Sale Helps Mickaboo's Birds

By Pamela A. Lee

Patty Blau is an artist who has supported Mickaboo's mission for several years. She and her friends collaborated recently on an art sale, focused on her works, to benefit Mickaboo's birds. It was a huge success – over 100 works of art, almost all of it sold by the end of the event, raising just under $5000.

Here are a few photos from the event:

Patty (at right) and a few patrons in the gallery

From left to right:

- Kim Bromley, lead organizer
- Patty Blau
- Robyn Wiley, who provided artistic direction

This photo also shows Harley (in the cage, to the left), a cockatiel that Patty once fostered.

Some of the art remaining at show's end.

Mickaboo thanks Patty, Kim, and Robyn for their support!