Artwork for the Birds

By Rachel Leung

I have a passion for drawing, and I especially enjoy drawing birds and other animals. Around a year ago, I picked up a laptop and began digital drawing on the touchpad, which I found that I loved and greatly enjoyed! I now draw digitally on a tablet, and share my art on @birbify on Instagram.

I am supporting Mickaboo by donating the commissions from Mickaboo's supporters for my artwork. What better way is there to both help Mickaboo and pursue my passion than to draw to raise money? One hundred percent of the proceeds will go to Mickaboo.

If you are interested, please email me at rachelmickaboo@gmail.com or DM me through my Instagram: @birbify. Some examples of my art illustrate this article, and below is a link to see more examples:

I would love to raise money for this great cause. I look forward to hearing from you at rachelmickaboo@gmail.com!
