

Innovative Ways to Help Mickaboo!

By Pamela Lee

Want to help Mickaboo financially – and lacking the ready cash to do so? Some corporate partners donate a portion of their profits with Mickaboo if our supporters use certain programs. Read on for details on these programs, and how you can join them.

Use a Mickaboo Credit Card

Turn your everyday spending into meaningful donations with one of our custom credit cards. The cards are adorned by our birds, and include Mick, the cockatiel who gave Mickaboo half of its name! Capital One donates cash to Mickaboo for every purchase you make - plus a $50 first purchase bonus.

Shop at Amazon!

Start your shopping at this link and Amazon will donate some of your purchase price to Mickaboo!

Shop at Your Grocery Store

Your SaveMart, S-Mart, FoodMaxx, and Northern California Lucky purchases can earn money for Mickaboo at NO cost to you! Mickaboo can send you a S.H.A.R.E.S. card to be swiped by the cashier before they ring up your grocery purchase. When this happens, SaveMart donates a part of your eligible purchases to Mickaboo. Get a S.H.A.R.E.S. card for every grocery shopper in your family! Email pr@mickaboo.org to let us know how many cards you want, and the US mail address to which the cards should be sent.

* * *

This webpage has more ideas like these to help you help your favorite bird rescue, including:

- Donating while you do your online searches
- Donating your castoff items to Community Thrift in San Francisco, for Mickaboo's benefit
- Recycling your used inkjet cartridges and small electronics
- Giving your opinions online
- Having an event at Chevy's or Panda Express
- Buying skin care products
- And MORE!

Check back often for updates!